

Oxford University Press is a leading publisher of titles for the human rights and immigration law practitioner. This year we are delighted to present a long-awaited new edition of the landmark analysis of human rights law by Clayton and Tomlinson, along with new editions of established core titles you can rely on – including the Immigration Law Handbook.

To discuss publishing within the Human Rights Law list, please contact Roxanne Selby at roxanne.selby@oup.com

NEW EDITION

The Law of Human Rights

Second Edition

Richard Clayton QC, Barrister, 39 Essex Street Chambers, Associate Fellow, Centre for Public Law, University of Cambridge, and Hugh Tomlinson QC, Barrister, Matrix Chambers

- Thoroughly revised and updated new edition of the leading practitioner text on the law of human rights
- Cited in over 90 judgements at all levels of the English Courts, including 16 House of Lords and Privy Council decisions, as well as in judgments of the courts in Scotland, Northern Ireland, Hong Kong, and New Zealand
- Fully updated to cover the impact and consolidation of the Human Rights Act 1998 into domestic law
- Contains new material on human rights law in South Africa and Scotland
- Offers an up-to-date discussion of the European Convention on Human Rights
- Contains a comprehensive treatment of the issues arising under the Human Rights Act 1998, such as the principles of proportionality, the nature of public authorities, and the developing rights of privacy
- Includes a separate materials volume containing the Act, the Convention and all relevant international human rights instruments

Since it was first published in 2000, The Law of Human Rights has become the leading practitioner text in this rapidly developing area of law.

Written by two leading Silks, and a team of expert contributors, it provides a comprehensive and systematic treatment of human rights law and practice in the UK, including an examination of the wider impact of the Human Rights Act 1998 upon the civil and criminal law. The second edition has been fully updated to provide detailed coverage of developments as the human rights legislation continues to be tested out in the courts, including topics such as the principles of proportionality, the nature of public authorities, and the developing right of privacy. The authors have tracked the growing body of case law and the book includes comprehensive case references for the UK and other jurisdictions, including new sections on human rights law in South Africa and Scotland.

The Law of Human Rights is accompanied by a comprehensive materials volume including the full text of the Act, the European Convention on Human Rights, and appendices considering human rights jurisprudence in relation to each Convention right dealing with the position in Scotland, Canada, New Zealand and South Africa.

The Law of Human Rights will be kept up-to-date by way of paperback supplements which provide full updates of relevant case law and legislation.

Law of Human Rights: Two Volumes
978-0-19-926357-8 | Hardback | £295.00 | 2,768 Pages | March 2009

“Eight years have passed since the first edition of this valuable work. In that time there has been an enormous growth in human rights jurisprudence, both at Strasbourg and in this jurisdiction. Human rights law has become an essential part of the diet of every lawyer and judge in this country. The second edition of Clayton and Tomlinson could not be more timely.”

The Right Honourable Lord Phillips of Worth Matravers, Senior Law Lord

“This edition has all the virtues of its predecessor, comprehensiveness and accuracy notable among them. But with its extended canvas and more closely textured tapestry, it will, if anything, be even more valuable.”

Lord Bingham of Cornhill KG, Preface to the Second Edition

“Stunningly good, both in ambition and execution. This is a remarkable work.”

A.T.H. Smith, Cambridge University Professor of Criminal and Public Laws, Fellow Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge, Criminal Law Review

Fair Trial Rights

Richard Clayton QC, Barrister, 39 Essex Street, and Hugh Tomlinson QC, Barrister, Matrix Chambers

- Comprehensive coverage of both pre-existing common law and European convention case law on fair trial rights
- In-depth analysis of the likely impact of the Human Rights Act
- Uniquely detailed comparative material from Canada, New Zealand and elsewhere

978-0-19957974-7 | Paperback | £49.95
352 Pages | October 2009

Privacy and Freedom of Expression

Richard Clayton QC, Barrister, 39 Essex Street, and Hugh Tomlinson QC, Barrister, Matrix Chambers

- Comprehensive coverage of both pre-existing common law and European convention case law on privacy and freedom of expression
- In-depth analysis of the likely impact of the Human Rights Act

978-019-957973-0 | Paperback | £49.95
380 Pages | October 2009

Two reprints of chapters from the authors' major practitioner text, The Law of Human Rights, make this material accessible to a wide audience. They provide a comprehensive and systematic treatment of human rights law and practice in the UK in relation to three different areas of the law.

NEW EDITION

Immigration Law Handbook Sixth Edition

Margaret Phelan, and James Gillespie,
Barristers, Renaissance Chambers

- Provides all the relevant Immigration and Asylum legislation in one handy volume

New to this edition:

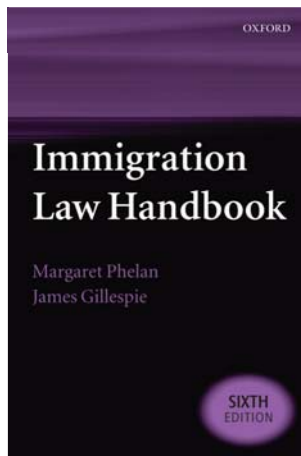

- Changes to the Immigration Rules
- The UK Borders Act 2007

Immigration and asylum law are areas that have experienced immense change in recent years. Many significant and controversial developments have been made through the introduction of new legislation, presenting the need for an up-to-date and fully comprehensive guide.

This sixth edition of the Immigration Law Handbook addresses these changes and brings together all the key materials in one volume, providing an essential reference tool for those working in the area. It includes recent substantial changes to the Immigration Rules, and the new UK Borders Act 2007 as well as previous legislation such as the Human Rights Act 1998.

In addition to domestic legislation, the Handbook also contains sections on relevant European and international materials, including the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms. The Immigration Law Handbook has established itself as the standard in the field and has become an invaluable resource for immigration practitioners.

978-0-19-955170-5 | Paperback | £55.00 | 1,352 pages | February 2009

NEW EDITION

Media Law and Human Rights Second edition

Andrew Nicol QC, Barrister,
Doughty Street Chambers;
Gavin Millar QC, Barrister,
Doughty Street Chambers; and Andrew
Sharland, Barrister, 4 Gray's Inn Square
Chambers

- Provides up-to-date coverage of important case law and decisions of the European Court of Human Rights that has occurred since the publication of the first edition such as Douglas v Hello, Murphy v Ireland, and R v Shayler (HL)
- Includes discussion of major developments outside the UK and Europe, including decisions of the US and Canadian Supreme Courts and the South African Constitutional Court.
- Offers updated commentary of the practical issues that media lawyers encounter
- Gives continued practical coverage of the impact of human rights principles in media law

978-0-19-921750-2 | Paperback | £49.95
300 pages | February 2009

Blackstone's Guide to the Borders, Citizenship and Immigration Act 2009

Ian Macdonald QC, Barrister,
Garden Court Chambers;
Adrian Berry QC, Barrister, Garden Court
Chambers; Hina Majid, Solicitor and Director of the Joint Council for the Welfare of Immigrants; and Ronan Toal, Barrister, Garden Court
Chambers

- This new Guide contains detailed commentary on the new Act, covering the path to settlement and British citizenship, the reform of immigration and asylum appeals, the framework for the exercise of revenue and changes. Contains the full text of the Act.

978-0-19-957957-0 | Paperback | £39.95
400 Pages | December 2009

NEW EDITION

Blackstone's Guide to the Human Rights Act 1998

Fifth Edition

John Wadham, Equality and Human Rights Commission; Helen Mountfield, Barrister, Matrix Chambers; Caoilfhionn Gallagher, Barrister, Doughty Street Chambers; Elizabeth Prochaska, Barrister, Matrix Chambers; and Anna Edmundson, Barrister

- Provides a clear and concise explanation of how the Human Rights Act has been applied
- Includes coverage of the Human Rights Act powers of the EHRC

This new edition of the provides clear, concise coverage of the application of the Human Rights Act 1998 and analyses the impact of Convention rights in landmark judgements from areas such as constitutional law, discrimination law, and criminal law.

978-0-19-957442-1 | Paperback | £44.95
470 Pages | September 2009

Blackstone's Guide to the Immigration Simplification Act 2010

Ian Macdonald QC, Barrister, Garden Court
Chambers; Adrian Berry, Barrister, Garden Court Chambers; Hina Majid, Joint Council for the Welfare of Immigrants; and Ronan Toal,
Barrister, Garden Court Chambers

- The Immigration Simplification Act is likely to be the most significant piece of immigration legislation in 30 years, consolidating and simplifying the existing regime. This Guide provides a detailed and practical commentary on the legislation.

978-0-19-957977-8 | Paperback | £39.95
504 Pages | March 2010

Blackstone's Guide to the Equality Act 2009

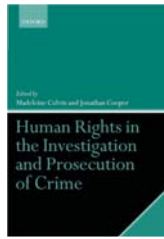

John Wadham, Anthony Robinson;
David Ruebain; and Susie Uppal, Equality and Human Rights Commission

- The Guide provides the full text of the Equality Act, together with extracts from relevant related legislation and an expert commentary. Essential reading for all lawyers encountering equality issues in their practice.

978-0-19-957610-4 | Paperback | £44.95
504 Pages | January 2010

Human Rights in the Investigation and Prosecution of Crime

Madeleine Colvin, Human Rights Consultant; and Jonathan Cooper O.B.E., Barrister, Doughty Street Chambers.

- Deals in turn with the practical impact of human rights on each area of criminal practice - from arrest and detention in police custody, court procedure, evidence, sentencing, and appeals
- Provides a comprehensive examination of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (RIPA), assessing and exploring the relationship between human rights and police investigatory and surveillance powers

978-0-19-921441-9 | Paperback | £55.00
700 Pages | December 2009

The Law of International Human Rights Protection

Walter Kälin, Professor of Constitutional and International Law, Faculty of Law, University of Bern and former Dean of the Faculty and Head of Legal Department, and Jörg Künzli, Assistant Professor of Public International and Constitutional Law, Faculty of Law, University of Bern

- Provides a concise but theoretically informed overview of the rapidly changing field of international human rights law
- Explains linkages between international human rights law, international humanitarian law and international criminal law
- Examines the thorny issues of implementation and enforceability of human rights at the domestic, regional and universal levels
- Provides excerpts from key documents and short discussions of current issues and difficult doctrinal problems at appropriate points in the text

978-0-19-956520-7 | Hardback | £70.00
475 Pages | July 2009

European Trends in the War on Terror Threats on Human Rights

Christophe Marchand, Criminal defense lawyer, Belgium, and Law Professor, Brussels Free University

- Author Christophe Marchand's experience as a defence attorney for terrorism suspects provides a unique perspective on the state of current anti-terror criminal procedure in Europe.

This publication provides a European viewpoint on the war on terror. The author, a defence attorney for terrorist suspects in European courts, shares his thoughts on European nations' response to contemporary terrorist threats.

Terrorism: Documents of International and Local Control
978-0-19-538847-3 | Hardback | £67.50
April 2009 (OUP USA)

Human Rights Law Review

Editor-in-Chief:
David Harris

Human Rights Law Review promotes awareness, knowledge, and discussion on matters of human rights law and policy. The Review is of interest to the wider human rights community, including those in governmental, inter-governmental and non-governmental spheres, concerned with law, policy, and fieldwork. It publishes critical articles that consider human rights in their various contexts, from global to national levels, book reviews, and a section dedicated to analysis of recent jurisprudence and practice of the UN and regional human rights systems.

Read a FREE online sample issue.

Simply visit: www.hrlr.oxfordjournals.org/subscriptions/sample.dtl and select a username and password to register

NEW EDITION

Harris, O'Boyle & Warbrick: Law of the European Convention on Human Rights Second Edition

David Harris, Emeritus Professor in Residence and Co-Director, Human Rights Law Centre, University of Nottingham, Michael O'Boyle, Deputy Registrar, European Court of Human Rights, Edward Bates, Lecturer in Law, University of Southampton, and Carla Buckley, Research Associate, Human Rights Law Centre, University of Nottingham

- Provides a critical analysis of the substantive content of each of the basic rights of the European Convention on Human Rights and successive Protocols
- The content and scope of each article is analyzed with the most thorough exploration of the case law of the European Court of Human Rights contained in any textbook

978-0-40-690594-9 | Paperback | £34.99
960 Pages | March 2009

Encyclopedia of Human Rights

David P. Forsythe, University Professor and Charles J Mach Distinguished Professor of Political Science, University of Nebraska, Editor in Chief

This major four-volume encyclopedia set offers comprehensive coverage of all aspects of human rights theory, practice, law, and history. The set will provide country profiles, and full coverage of the development of the movement, of historical cases of abuse, of the key figures, of major organizations past and present, and of a range of other issues in economics, government, religion and journalism, that touch on human rights theory and practice.

978-0-19-533688-7 | Hardback | £220.00
June 2009 (OUP USA)