

Competition Law

Sixth Edition

Richard Whish, Professor of Law, King's College, London

Richard Whish's Competition Law is the definitive textbook on this subject. The author's authoritative treatment of the area is matched by a lively and easy-to-follow writing style; his acclaimed critical and contextual approach addresses the wider economic and practical issues of competition law and brings the subject to life. A new and improved design presents content in a clear and straightforward style, and additional diagrams and tables aid reader navigation.

This book is an indispensable resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of law and economics, as well as for practitioners and officials involved in competition law.

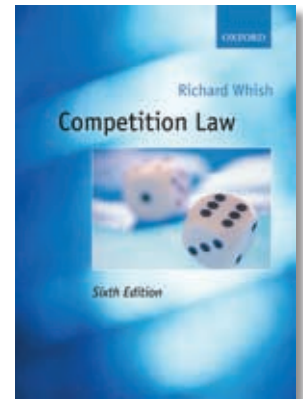

Key features

- Discussion of EC Merger Regulation and the Technology Transfer Regulation of 2004
- Reflects upon the European Commission's discussion paper on Article 82
- Provides a more detailed picture of the EC Modernisation Regulation
- Offers a full discussion of UK market investigation of merger control, now that the Enterprise Act has been in force for four years
- More information on the economics that underpins the whole of competition law

1,088 pp August 2008 978-0-19-928938-7 Paperback £32.99

CONTENTS:

1. Competition policy and economics; 2. Overview of EC and UK competition law; 3. Article 81 (1); 4. Article 81 (3); 5. Article 82; 6. The obligations of Member States under the EC competition rules; 7. Articles 81 and 82: enforcement by the European Commission and national competition authorities under the Modernisation Regulation; 8. Articles 81 and 82: enforcement in the courts of Member States; 9. Competition Act 1998: substantive provisions; 10. Competition Act 1998: enforcement and procedure; 11. Enterprise Act 2002: market investigations; 12. The international dimension of competition law; 13. Horizontal agreements (i) - cartels; 14. Horizontal agreements (ii) - oligopoly, tacit collusion and collective dominance; 15. Horizontal agreements (iii) - cooperation agreements; 16. Vertical agreements; 17. Abuse of dominance (i): non-pricing practices; 18. Abuse of dominance (ii): pricing practices; 19. The relationship between intellectual property rights and competition law; 20. Mergers (i) - introduction; 21. Mergers (ii) - EC law; 22. Mergers (iii) - UK law; 23. Particular sectors

Explains the economic context within which competition law operates

ONLINE RESOURCE CENTRE

The Online Resource Centre that accompanies this edition of the book contains articles written by the author, chapters from the book, and updates to the law post publication.

www.oxfordtextbooks.co.uk/orc/whish6e/

Goyder's EC Competition Law

Fifth Edition

Joanna Goyder, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, Brussels, and Albertina Albers-Llorens, University Senior Lecturer and a Fellow and Director of Studies in Law in Girton College, Cambridge

Original author: The late D.G. Goyder (1938-2004), Visiting Professor in Law, King's College, London

With a strong emphasis on the historical development of EC competition law, the student is able to fully appreciate the sequence of events that lead to changes in policy or new legislation, vital to understanding this area of law. Students are given a clear understanding of the facts and legal basis for decisions which are often difficult to obtain from lengthy ECJ and CFI case reports.

Close attention is paid to comparative material, particularly US antitrust law, giving readers a global insight into the area, and invaluable analysis of the connections between competition law and economics is also provided.

New to this edition

- Inclusion of recent decisions of the European Commission and of the Community judiciary in the interpretation of Articles 81 and 82 EC
- Discussion of the new 2004 Commission Notice on Effect on Trade between Member States
- Examination of the impact of the Commission Modernisation Programme on the application of Article 81(3) EC and consideration of the review of Article 82 EC launched by the Commission
- More detailed examination of abuses of collective dominance and problems that arise in the application of EC Competition rules to oligopolistic markets

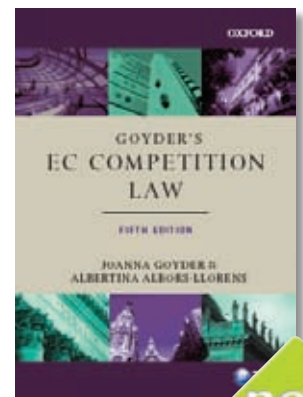

664 pp March 2009 978-0-19-923230-7 Paperback £39.99
Also available

715 pp March 2009 978-0-19-953531-6 Hardback £95.00

CONTENTS:

- Part I - The early years; 1. Introduction; 2. Competition policy and the role of economics; 3. The origins of European competition law; 4. The early years of DG Comp; 5. The advent of the Block Exemption;
- Part II - The substantive law of the European Community; 6. Article 81(1) analysis 1; 7. Article 81(1) analysis 2; 8. Article 81(3) Conditions for exemption; 9. Horizontal agreements: cartels; 10. Distribution agreements and practices; 11. Distribution: selective distribution and franchising; 12. Intellectual property rights: licensing; 13. Article 82: The concept of dominance; 14. Article 82: Abuse; 15. Article 82: Its relationship with Article 81; 16. Mergers (1); 17. Mergers (2); 18. Joint ventures and horizontal co-operation agreements; 19. Enforcement of community law by national authorities; 20. National courts and the direct application of community law; 21. Member states and EC competition rules; 22. International aspects of EC competition law; Part III - Conclusions and prospects; 23. Fifty years of the Treaty of Rome; 24. The future of European competition law

Oxford European Community Law Library Series

new edition

This classic text has been fully updated following the death of D.G. Goyder in 2004 by his daughter and co-author

ONLINE RESOURCE CENTRE

An Online Resource Centre provides an additional chapter on Intellectual Property Rights: the purpose and effects of articles 30 to 36. It also provides a chronological table of developments in EU competition law history, and web links.

www.oxfordtextbooks.co.uk/orc/goyder5e/

Cases and Materials on UK and EC Competition Law

Second Edition

Kirsty Middleton, Regional Counsel, Greater China, Diageo plc, and formerly Senior Lecturer in Law, University of Strathclyde, Barry Rodger, Professor of Law, University of Strathclyde, Angus MacCulloch, Lecturer in Law, University of Lancaster, and Jonathan Galloway, Lecturer in Law, Newcastle University

This book offers unique coverage of essential cases and materials on UK and EC competition law, providing students with a solid basis for understanding.

Careful and intelligent selection and placement of materials helps students to break down complex issues into manageable portions.

Notes and questions test readers' progress, and a table of abbreviations and glossary of terms consolidate learning.

New to this edition

- Two new chapters covering cartels and leniency, and private enforcement
- New coverage on the Enterprise Act and new regulations on EC competition law, mergers, and the Technology Transfer Block Exemption
- Details of the decentralization of EC competition law, supported by more US and common law examples
- Further reading sections expanded with the addition of more articles, books, and web addresses

600 pp September 2009 978-0-19-929039-0
Paperback £29.99

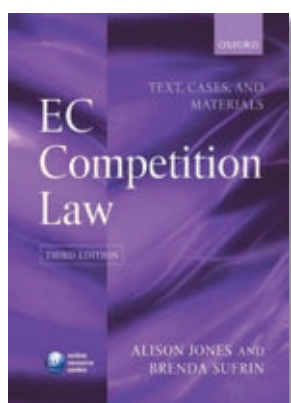

CONTENTS:

1. Competition law and policy; 2. UK enforcement; 3. EC enforcement; 4. Private enforcement; 5. Competition law and policy in global markets; 6. Control of anti-competitive agreements in the UK; 7. Article 81 EC; 8. Vertical restraints; 9. Cartels and leniency; 10. UK monopoly control; 11. Article 82 EC; 12. UK merger control; 13. EC merger control; 14. State aid and state regulation

ONLINE RESOURCE CENTRE

Accompanied by an Online Resource Centre which provides updates and web links.

www.oxfordtextbooks.co.uk/orc/middleton2e/

EC Competition Law

Text, Cases, and Materials

Third Edition

Alison Jones, Professor of Law, King's College London, and Brenda Sufrin, Professor of Law, University of Bristol

Combining the strengths of a modern textbook and a traditional materials book, EC Competition Law is a stand alone guide to the study of competition law, providing a judicious balance of analysis, cases, and materials. The authors have carefully chosen the selection of writings to present the most important perspectives on the subject as well as the broader socio-economic context of EC competition law. This third edition includes coverage of the review of Article 82 and the green paper on damages and more on US anti-trust law.

This book is ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate courses covering competition law in its European context.

1,418 pp 2007 978-0-19-929904-1 Paperback £36.99

CONTENTS:

1. Introduction to competition law; 2. The European Community and the competition provisions; 3. Article 81: the elements; 4. The relationship between Article 81(1) and Article 81(3) of the Treaty; 5. Article 82: the elements; 6. Article 82: establishing dominance; 7. Conduct which can be an abuse; 8. Competition, the state and public undertakings; Article 86; 9. Distribution agreements; 10. Intellectual property rights; 11. Cartels and oligopoly; 12. Mergers; 13. Joint ventures and other beneficial horizontal arrangements; 14. Public enforcement by the commission and the national competition authorities of the antitrust provisions; 15. Proceedings in the national court; 16. Extraterritoriality, international aspects and globalization

ONLINE RESOURCE CENTRE

A dedicated Online Resource Centre offers regular updates to keep readers informed of the latest developments, and a selection of annotated web links to facilitate further study into different jurisdictions and areas of research. It also includes a chapter on State Aids.

www.oxfordtextbooks.co.uk/jones_sufrintcm3e/

New additional chapter on State Aids now available on the accompanying Online Resource Centre

Competition Law of the EC and UK

Sixth Edition

Mark Furse, Professor of Competition Law and Policy, University of Glasgow

Competition Law of the EC and UK, now in its sixth edition, is an engaging, reliable and well-structured introduction to competition law in the EC and UK.

Covering the key topics studied by students on competition law courses, this book takes a straightforward approach to the links and differences between EC and UK law and clearly explains the economic concepts underpinning competition law. Coverage of international issues and the globalization of competition law ensures the book maps onto a variety of courses and provides students with a worldwide context.

500 pp March 2008 978-0-19-923792-0 Paperback £28.99

CONTENTS:

1. Introduction to competition law; 2. The European Community and United Kingdom competition regimes; 3. The relationship between European Community and United Kingdom competition law; 4. International issues and the globalization of competition law; 5. Investigation; 6. Penalties and leniency arrangements; 7. Complaints and third-party rights; 8. An introduction to the economics of agreements, collusion, and parallel conduct; 9. Article 81 EC; 10. Block exemption regulations under Article 81 EC; 11. The Chapter I Prohibition; 12. The cartel offence; 13. An introduction to the economics of monopoly abuse; 14. Article 82 EC; 15. The Chapter II Prohibition; 16. Abusive practices; 17. Market investigation references; 18. An introduction to the economics of merger control; 19. The EC merger control regime and the treatment of joint ventures; 20. The UK merger control regime and the treatment of joint ventures; 21. Competition law and intellectual property; 22. The common law and competition

ONLINE RESOURCE CENTRE

This book is accompanied by an Online Resource Centre, which provides regular updates to the law, along with web links and a table of OFT decisions.

www.oxfordtextbooks.co.uk/orc/furse6e/

UK and EC Competition Documents

Sixth Edition

Kirsty Middleton

Blackstone's Statutes, see series page

592 pp August 2009 978-0-19-956031-8 Paperback £18.99

