

free time

life with Agrippine

in groups ...

When you were younger, did you have a regular group of friends? Who was in your group? What did you do together?

Have you got different friends now? Do you do the same things?

cartoon time

Read the cartoon. Is it true to life?

3.1 Listen and follow the cartoon. Then test your partner on the glossary words.

natural English fancy (v)

Fancy is common in informal English to mean would like or want.

Do you fancy a drink?

I don't fancy (the idea of) camping.

Do you fancy going out this evening?

I don't fancy that much.

Practise saying the sentences. Find three other ways of asking or suggesting in the cartoon. Rephrase them using fancy.

glossary

wanna © want to

telly © television

There's ... on showing, on the television stuff © things, a general word, e.g. What kind of stuff do you like reading?

the pictures cinema

broke © having no money

pathetic © useless, no good put sb on pass the phone to sb too much on © too many things to do in unit three ... tick ✓ if you know this natural English

- fancy* (v)
- describing group size
- agreeing with and challenging opinions
- talking about your background
- reaching a decision / moving on grammar

- each other / one another, -self / -selves*
- obligation, necessity, and prohibition
- sequencing information in a text

vocabulary

- good and bad relationships

wordbooster

- personality phrases
- paraphrasing

