

HEADWAY ACADEMIC SKILLS LEVEL 3 CONTENTS

1 Education and learning	READING Good study habits p 4–6 Effective reading: (1): survey; skim; scan (2): intensive reading Education in the UK Effective reading: (3): increasing reading speed: focusing your reading	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 7 Linking words and phrases which show similarities and differences	WRITING Education in Japan and England: a comparison p 8–9 Checking your writing (1): sentence length; word order and linking words; missing words Writing a comparing and contrasting essay	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Dictionary work p 10 Using a dictionary (1) (1) symbols and abbreviations (2) correct usage of new words	REVIEW p 11 Checking your writing (2): punctuation, spelling, and grammar
2 Innovations in health and medicine	READING A musical cure p 12–14 Predicting content Topic sentences A new vaccine Avoiding plagiarism (1): rephrasing	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 15 Rephrasing using (near) synonyms, and the passive voice Rules: the passive voice	WRITING Keeping healthy p 16–17 Developing a paragraph: topic sentences; body sentences; final sentences Writing a paragraph	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Recording vocabulary p 18 Recording vocabulary (1): which words to record (2): what to record about a word (3): choosing a suitable method to record vocabulary	REVIEW p 19
3 Urban planning	READING A model of good urban planning p 20–22 Paragraph purpose: how understanding the purpose of a paragraph helps you understand a text Text cohesion: linking strategies between paragraphs A capital city	RESEARCH Finding information p 23 Using reference material: using synonyms or more general words to find what you need Searching the Internet efficiently (1): choosing the appropriate site (2): planning your search	WRITING An international trade fair p 24–25 Selecting information: identifying the purpose and key message of your writing Prioritizing: putting the information in order Brainstorming: before writing – writing notes, then organizing, selecting, and prioritizing your ideas Writing a persuasive article	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Collocations (1) p 26 Collocations: words that go together – adjective + noun; verb + noun	REVIEW p 27
4 Water, food and energy	READING Water, water everywhere p 28–30 Using more than one source to find required information Food chains Identifying rephrasing, explaining, and giving examples: using discourse markers to help you understand a text	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 31 Language which introduces or concludes Rephrasing, explaining, and giving examples Relative clauses	WRITING Sources of energy p 32–33 Introductions and thesis statements: expressing the main ideas Developing a thesis statement Conclusions: summaries and personal opinions Writing to describe and explain	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Compound nouns and adjectives p 34 Compound nouns Compound adjectives	REVIEW p 35
5 Free trade and fair trade	READING Globalization p 36–38 Distinguishing between facts and opinion: expressing caution, uncertainty, and reporting another person's opinion Identifying a point of view	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 39 Modal verbs, adjectives, adverbs, and phrases for expressing certainty and uncertainty Phrases which express caution	WRITING Examples of fair trading p 40–41 Supporting a point of view: thesis statement, giving supporting arguments, and giving examples Consumerism Presenting arguments (1) Consistency: organizing your argument by topic or point of view (2) Staging: words and phrases for staging arguments Writing an opinion essay	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Multiple meanings p 42 Using a dictionary (3): words with more than one part of speech, meaning, and pronunciation	REVIEW p 43
6 Conserving the past	READING The Terracotta Army p 44–46 Dealing with longer texts (1): (1) survey; question; read (2) recall to check understanding; review your answers and notes	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 47 Linking words and phrases for adding information and for reason and result Rules: using reason and result words and phrases	WRITING Museums p 48–49 Checking your writing (4): looking at purpose, content, and organization of an essay Writing an evaluation essay	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Collocations (2) p 50 Words that go together – verb + adverb; adverb + adjective	REVIEW p 51
7 Wonders of the modern world	READING Feats of engineering p 52–54 How to make reading easier (1): dealing with unknown words (2): dealing with complex sentences Islands in the sun How to make reading easier (3): understanding pronouns	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Word building (1) p 55 Suffixes: how word endings change the part of speech and meaning of a word	RESEARCH Crediting sources (1) p 56 Avoiding plagiarism (2): Sources LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 56 Rules: using reporting verbs to summarize the words of the writer of a text	WRITING Tunnels and buildings p 57–58 Summarizing: identifying, organizing, and rewriting ideas Writing a summary	REVIEW p 59
8 Olympic business	READING Hosting the Olympic Games p 60–62 Making notes: different methods of recording what you read	RESEARCH Crediting sources (2) p 63 Avoiding plagiarism (3) Sources (2): indirect and direct quotations Avoiding plagiarism (4) Punctuation of quotations: indirect and direct quotations	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 64 Words and phrases for contrasting Rules: using words and phrases of contrast WRITING A permanent site for the Olympics p 65 Process writing: the stages of essay writing Writing a discursive essay	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Synonyms and antonyms p 66 Synonyms and near synonyms: choosing different synonyms for different contexts Antonyms: choosing different antonyms for different contexts	REVIEW p 67
9 Trends	READING Working p 68–70 Understanding visual information Trends in education Interpreting data	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 71 Language for describing graphs and charts, and statistics.	WRITING The changing generations p 72–73 Using graphs: presenting data in a graphic form to make your writing clearer Writing a report with visuals	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Word-building (2) p 74 Prefixes: recognition of prefixes which carry meaning Composite words	REVIEW p 75
10 Communication and technology	READING The history of communication technology p 76–78 Dealing with longer texts (2): predict, preview, skim, and select Dealing with longer texts (3): read, make notes, check, and recall	LANGUAGE FOR SPEAKING Language for presentations p 79	WRITING FOR SPEAKING Interpreting and translating p 80–81 Giving presentations: how to be a good presenter Preparing notes for a presentation Giving a presentation	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Formal and informal vocabulary p 82 Formal and informal vocabulary: using formal and informal vocabulary appropriately	REVIEW p 83