Cross-search the full text of over 1,200 books

Link to individual chapters from online course packs and reading lists

The screenshot shows the Oxford Scholarship Online interface. On the left, there are search options: 'Quick Search' with a search box, 'Advanced Search', and 'Cross-Reference'. Below that are 'Categories' and 'Full Book Catalogue'. The main content area displays a book entry for 'Teaching the Reformation' by Amy Nelson Burnett. It includes the title, author, publication date (2008), and ISBNs. An abstract follows, describing the book's focus on the education and ministry of Reformed ministers in Basel. Below the abstract is a 'Table of Contents' section with links for 'Introduction', 'Part I. Basel and the Reformation, 1529-1559', and 'Part II. Creating a System of Pastoral Education'. Each section has links for 'Abstract' and 'Full Text'. A 'Keywords' section lists terms like 'clergy', 'education', and 'reformation'.
