

Name:

Class:

From Key Stage 3, I can . . .	Definitely	Maybe	Maybe not	Definitely not
Name any animals struggling to survive because their environment has changed.
Explain why there are always more herbivores than carnivores.
Describe what decomposers, like fungi and bacteria do.
Explain where the solar energy plants absorb ends up.
Remember two things that make each individual unique.
Say what's different about sexual and asexual reproduction.
Explain what genetic engineering involves and why it's useful.
List some of the worries people have about genetic engineering.
Explain what classification involves and why it's useful.
Explain what evolution is and how it happens.				