

More homophones

When a word sounds the same as another, but is spelled differently and has a different meaning, it can be confusing!

GETTING STARTED

Circle the correct word in each sentence.

- There are to / too / two many clothes in my wardrobe.
- I don't know were / wear / where we are going on holiday.
- My friends like to celebrate there / they're / their birthdays in style.
- I can't hear / here what my mother is saying when I am listening to my MP3 player.
- My dad can't see / sea without his spectacles.
- I can never decide which / witch is my favourite ice cream.

MOVING ON

Match each definition to the correct homophone.

- |     |            |   |            |
|-----|------------|---|------------|
| 1.  | sleigh     | a sledge, especially a large one pulled by horses               | slay       |
| 2.  | troupe     | a company of actors or other performers                         | troop      |
| 3.  | story      | one whole floor of a building                                   | storey     |
| 4.  | stationary | paper, envelopes, and other articles used in writing or typing  | stationery |
| 5.  | principle  | chief, most important   | principal  |
| 6.  | muscle     | a shellfish with a black shell                                  | mussel     |
| 7.  | strait     | a narrow stretch of water connecting two seas                   | straight   |
| 8.  | nave       | the main part of a church                                       | knave      |
| 9.  | compliment | something you say to show that you approve of a person or thing | complement |
| 10. | faint      | to pretend to attack or hit someone                             | feint      |