

How? When? Where?

Adverbs are words which tell us when or where or how something happens.

a yesterday here up sometimes easily

Which of these adverbs say when?

Which of them say where or where to?

Which of them say how?

b Adverbs and verbs work together in sentences. Write five sentences and in each one put one of the adverbs from section a (above) and one of the verbs below.

won arrived try climb wait

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

c Adverbs are often made by adding -ly to adjectives.

Which adjectives do these adverbs come from? Be careful with the ones that end in -ily.

slowly

warily

hungrily

particularly

finally