

Summary of Unit Contents

Unit	Subject content	Grammar	Skills
Passerelle	Describing the area you live in Speaking about yourself in some detail Writing a brief account of someone's life	The infinitive High numbers The present tense Genders of nouns	Using a bilingual dictionary Writing a brief description Recording and learning new vocabulary Pronunciation: French vowels and the rhythm of spoken French
1 En famille et entre amis	Family relationships Friendships The pros and cons of marriage Changes in family structure	Inversion The perfect conditional The past historic	Using different registers when speaking Using a monolingual dictionary Structuring an argument for a debate
2 En pleine forme?	Smoking and drinking The health risks of taking drugs Healthy eating and eating disorders Healthy lifestyles	Impersonal verbs The relative pronoun dont The conditional Present participles	Talking about rights and duties Writing an opinion piece Using expressions for making suggestions
Révisions Unités 1–2	Revision of Units 1–2
3 Les médias	Television programmes The influence of television on young people Advertising and its effects French newspapers and magazines	Definite and indefinite articles Negatives Adjectives, including comparative and superlative forms Verbs followed by an infinitive	Expressing opinions, agreement and disagreement Reading a passage for gist
4 Les nouveaux médias et la musique	The importance of music and downloads for young people The popularity of blogs and wikis Issues relating to mobile phones The role of the Internet	The perfect tense Direct object pronouns Possessive adjectives and possessive pronouns depuis venir de après avoir, après être	Understanding statistics and commenting on them Understanding the link between French and English suffixes Taking notes when listening
Révisions Unités 3–4	Revision of Units 3–4
5 La vie culturelle en France	Different types of film The history of cinema in France and the effect of DVDs The role of theatre and festivals Different types of music	Prepositions The pluperfect tense The relative pronouns qui and que Adverbs Demonstrative adjectives and pronouns	Speaking from notes Dealing with longer reading texts
6 Vivre sa vie	The problems of housing for young people Aspects of shopping Transport issues Different patterns of living	The imperfect tense Different ways to ask questions Indirect object pronouns Indirect speech	Using conjunctions to improve quality of writing Dealing with doze texts
Révisions Unités 5–6	Revision of Units 5–6
7 Allez les sportifs	Reasons for taking part in sport The health benefits of sport French sports stars Fair play in professional sport	The future Verbs linked to an infinitive with à and de Emphatic pronouns The pronouns y and en	Synonyms and antonyms Answering questions on a French text

Summary of Unit Contents

8 Le tourisme	Holiday experiences Different types of holiday The pros and cons of tourism The impact of tourism on holiday destinations Transport	The imperative The passive Starting a sentence with an infinitive	Using knowledge of word families to extend vocabulary Tackling listening tasks more effectively Using a range of phrases for convincing someone of your point of view
Révisions Unités 7–8	Revision of Units 7–8
9 Le lycée, et après?	The French and British education systems Describing own education The challenges facing first-time jobseekers Should school do more to prepare young people for the world of work? Preparing a job application letter	Recognising verbs in the subjunctive The main uses of the subjunctive Use of the subjunctive vs the indicative The future perfect tense	Writing a formal letter
Révisions Unité 9	Revision of Unit 9
Réviser tout	Practice examination material for the whole book Revision of key grammar points and skills
Grammaire	Grammar reference section
Vocabulaire	Glossary		