

A colorful illustration of a family walking home in the snow at night. A man in a brown jacket, a woman in a purple coat, and a young girl in a red coat and green leggings are walking. A dog is on a leash. Snow is falling, and a house is in the background.

Winter walk

Walking home from Granny's
On a dark and snowy night,
Everything looks ghostly
In the shadowy street light.

All is still and quiet.
No footsteps can be heard,
Except the crunch beneath us.
Too cold to say a word.
