

Sounds and Letters Teaching Sequence

Revisit and Review

- Revise sounds with the Flashcards and the Frieze.

Consolidate

- Use the Sounds and Letters Books and the CD-ROM activities to revise sounds and consolidate learning.

Teach

- Teach new sounds using the Flashcards and the Sounds and Letters CD-ROM.

At home

- Continue practising at home with the Home Grapheme Tiles and with the Sounds and Letters Books.
- Visit www.oxfordowl.co.uk for free eBooks and parental guidance on how to pronounce sounds.

Practise

- Practise new and revised sounds and letters with the Sounds and Letters Books and the Sounds and Letters Activity Sheets.

"Using this teaching sequence will enable you to get the most from your Floppy's Phonics resources. Simply follow the sequence shown to ensure phonics success."

Debbie Hepplewhite
Phonics expert and trainer

Apply

- After each new sound is taught
- cumulative texts for reading practice.
- grapheme tiles for spelling practice.

Perfect for teaching Letters and Sounds

Oxford Reading Tree is perfect for early reading...

TEACH PHONICS... with Floppy's Phonics Sounds and Letters

PRACTISE PHONICS... with Floppy's Phonics Fiction and Non-fiction

RICHER READING with 36 new Biff, Chip and Kipper Decode and Develop Stories
Plus all the other fantastic Biff, Chip and Kipper Stories